

Monthly exam

February/March

fourth grade
Communications &
Information Technology

30

School :
ST.Name:
Class :

Model (A)

The first question put the word true in front of the correct statement and the word false in front of the wrong statement:

1. The scientist William Tyner is considered a specialist in the field of cultural anthropology
2. Digital citizenship is the ability to use technology in an ethical and responsible manner
3. People who have difficulty speaking find it difficult to communicate with others because of digital devices
4. No camera or speakers is required to make video chats
5. Anyone who has access to the chat room will be able to read your messages.

Second question Complete the following sentences with the appropriate words in brackets:

(Information Technology - Edmodo - Trusted Sources - Augmented Reality - Asynchronous Communication - Problem Solving)

1. Online learning environments such as allow teachers and students to communicate with each other no matter where they are.
2. are articles or information written by experts, verified and presented in a professional manner and written carefully.
3. It is preferable to use when the answer needs to be thought or prepared, or it is not urgent.
4. Gautam Shah lived and worked as an expert in the field of in many countries.

Internet of Elephant designs unique phone games using

The third question: Write the scientific term denoting the following expressions:

1. One of the most popular communication applications
2. Communication that occurs in real time via instant responses
3. It is commonly used in more formal situations, such as creating an account on the Egyptian Knowledge Bank
4. An interactive feature provided by National Geographic that provides online mapping tools
5. Scientific guess about how things happen

Monthly exam February/March

fourth grade
Communications &
Information Technology

30

School :
ST.Name:
Class :

Model B

The first question put the word true in front of the correct statement and the word false in front of the wrong statement:

1. Using technology in a positive way helps people become successful digital citizens.
2. As a digital citizen, you should never hack protected content in order to share or sell it.
3. One of the most popular virtual meeting applications Facebook.
4. Asynchronous communication requires an immediate response and the need for people to be present at the same time
5. You can use e-mail to communicate with government agencies or an official.

Second question Complete the following sentences with the appropriate words in brackets:

(Untrusted sources - chat rooms - Internet of Elephants - Egyptian Knowledge Bank - hypothesis building - problem solving)

1. In you can simply write your comment and send it, as you can reply to messages.
2. is considered the first digital library in Egypt that contains resources on various topics.
3. It is likely that you will find in information full of opinions, errors and even lies.
4. Gautam Shah founded an organization.....which uses digital tools to enhance the relationship between people and wildlife.
5. is an attempt to answer your question with an explanation that can be tested.

The third question: Write the scientific term denoting the following expressions:

1. It is a digital record of everything you do on the Internet, such as the websites you visit.
2. You can use it to share videos to learn or teach new things.
3. It allows you to send messages using the Internet, and the message can include text, pictures, or a video clip.
4. A virtual laboratory platform that enables you to conduct laboratory experiments in an interactive environment.
5. A type of communication, preferably between friends or close family members.

Monthly exam February/March

fourth grade
Communications &
Information Technology

30

School :
ST.Name:
Class :

Model (C)

The first question put the word true in front of the correct statement and the word false in front of the wrong statement:

1. William Tyner uses different types of digital technology in his work.
2. It is your right not to copy your digital fingerprint or share it without your consent.
3. synchronous communication used between people who do not know each other well.
4. Augmented reality allows you to see the real environment of things virtually through dedicated displays.
5. Dividing the problem into small parts helps to gradually solve it.

Second question Complete the following sentences with the appropriate words in brackets:

(Social communication - Internet browser - National Geographic Kids - digital devices - hypothesis building – planning)

1.can provide the necessary communication with teachers in addition to the materials needed for learning.
2. Through you can work with your colleagues by default on a project outside the school.
3. To enter a chat room, you need, such as Google Chrome or Enternet Explorer
4. is a popular resource on the Internet that enables children to find information on specific topics about animals, science, history and geography
It is important to before conducting any digital research, which helps you to focus your search on the information you are trying to collect.

The third question: Write the scientific term denoting the following expressions:

1. Exchanging information or files between two people at the same time through various digital tools.
2. One of the most popular virtual meeting applications.
3. It allows you to communicate in groups and usually focus on one topic only.
4. It is a fun and informal way of communicating. Short phrases can be used instead of full sentences.
5. It is appropriate to communicate when the information revolves around issues of daily life.

Monthly exam

February/March

fourth grade
Communications &
Information Technology

30

School :
ST.Name:
Class :

Model (D)

The first question put the word true in front of the correct statement and the word false in front of the wrong statement:

1. There are many ways in which digital tools help Egyptian citizens.
2. You have the right to use the Internet when you need to, while respecting the law.
3. In video chats, you should dress appropriately and act as if you were in a public place.
4. The outline should include an introduction, supporting paragraphs and a conclusion or final thoughts.
5. It is preferable to use synchronous communication when information revolves around sensitive or complex topics.

Second question Complete the following sentences with the appropriate words in brackets:

(Danger – synchronous communication - interactive map designer - digital devices - video chat – screens)

1. When making.....make sure that there is nothing in the background that indicates your address or personal information about you.
2. Allows to use topics, data and tools related to maps.
3. It is preferable to use when the information is urgent or needs to be moved quickly.
4. Things can be seen Virtually by Displays them onprepared for this purpose
5. When testing your hypothesis, do not do any test that exposes you to.....

The third question: Write the scientific term denoting the following expressions:

1. It can help someone who has difficulty speaking to communicate with others
2. One of the tools needed to create instant messaging on a mobile phone.
3. When using it, make sure to use the correct grammar, salutations and closing phrases.
4. Through it, teachers can provide virtual lessons and download tests and assignments for students.
5. Means the protection of animals in their natural environment.